

- Fill their minds with doubts and excuses about why they're not ready to fully surrender.

Why? Because if people keep delaying their decision, many will never make it at all.

Final Thought: The Greatest Deception?

The greatest trick the enemy has ever pulled is convincing people that he doesn't exist and that they don't need God."

"I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me". John 14:6

"For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life". John 3:16

Do you want to find out more? Here are some useful resources to begin your journey:

davidpawson.co.uk
derekprince.com
bibleproject.com
khouse.org

(produced by kingdomtracts.co.uk)

If You Were the Devil...

Hey Chat GPT if you were the devil, how would you keep people as far away from God as possible without them realising it?

ChatGPT said:

"That's a deep and thought-provoking question. If I were the devil, my strategy would be subtle and deceptive—not to turn people against God outright, but to distract, deceive, and desensitise them so they drift away without even realising it. Here's how:

1. Keep People Comfortable and Distracted

- Make them too busy, entertained, and comfortable to think about God.
- Flood their lives with social media, Netflix, endless scrolling, and constant noise so they never have time for prayer or the Bible.
- Make church seem unnecessary—convince them they can "believe in God" but not really need to seek Him.

Why? Because distractions keep people from hearing God's voice and experiencing real spiritual growth.

2. Twist the Truth and Promote a "Feel-Good" Gospel

- Make Christianity about self-improvement instead of surrender to God.
- Encourage a watered-down gospel—one that says

- Fill their minds with doubts and excuses about why they're not ready to fully surrender.

Why? Because if people keep delaying their decision, many will never make it at all.

Final Thought: The Greatest Deception?

The greatest trick the enemy has ever pulled is convincing people that he doesn't exist and that they don't need God."

"I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me". John 14:6

"For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life". John 3:16

Do you want to find out more? Here are some useful resources to begin your journey:

davidpawson.co.uk
derekprince.com
bibleproject.com
khouse.org

(produced by kingdomtracts.co.uk)

If You Were the Devil...

Hey Chat GPT if you were the devil, how would you keep people as far away from God as possible without them realising it?

ChatGPT said:

"That's a deep and thought-provoking question. If I were the devil, my strategy would be subtle and deceptive—not to turn people against God outright, but to distract, deceive, and desensitise them so they drift away without even realising it. Here's how:

1. Keep People Comfortable and Distracted

- Make them too busy, entertained, and comfortable to think about God.
- Flood their lives with social media, Netflix, endless scrolling, and constant noise so they never have time for prayer or the Bible.
- Make church seem unnecessary—convince them they can "believe in God" but not really need to seek Him.

Why? Because distractions keep people from hearing God's voice and experiencing real spiritual growth.

2. Twist the Truth and Promote a "Feel-Good" Gospel

- Make Christianity about self-improvement instead of surrender to God.

Encourage a watered-down gospel—one that says

God loves you but never mentions repentance, holiness, or spiritual warfare.

- Convince people that sin isn't a big deal—that God is love, so He won't judge them.

Why? Because a half-truth is more dangerous than a full lie. If people think they're saved while living in sin, they won't seek real transformation.

3. Make Sin Look Normal and Righteousness Look Extreme

- Normalise sexual immorality, greed, pride, and rebellion through movies, music, and culture.
- Label true Christians as “judgmental,” “intolerant,” or “extreme” so people avoid deep faith.
- Promote the idea that truth is relative—that “everyone has their own truth” instead of God's absolute truth.

Why? Because if you can redefine sin, people will never feel the need to repent.

4. Make People Trust in Themselves Instead of God

- Push the idea that success, money, and personal happiness are all that matter.
- Convince them that they are good enough without Jesus.
- Replace faith with self-help, New Age spirituality, or “manifestation” techniques.

Why? Because if people believe they can handle life on

God loves you but never mentions repentance, holiness, or spiritual warfare.

- Convince people that sin isn't a big deal—that God is love, so He won't judge them.

Why? Because a half-truth is more dangerous than a full lie. If people think they're saved while living in sin, they won't seek real transformation.

3. Make Sin Look Normal and Righteousness Look Extreme

- Normalise sexual immorality, greed, pride, and rebellion through movies, music, and culture.
- Label true Christians as “judgmental,” “intolerant,” or “extreme” so people avoid deep faith.
- Promote the idea that truth is relative—that “everyone has their own truth” instead of God's absolute truth.

Why? Because if you can redefine sin, people will never feel the need to repent.

4. Make People Trust in Themselves Instead of God

- Push the idea that success, money, and personal happiness are all that matter.
- Convince them that they are good enough without Jesus.
- Replace faith with self-help, New Age spirituality, or “manifestation” techniques.

Why? Because if people believe they can handle life on their own, they won't feel the need for a Savior.

5. Destroy Prayer Lives and Faith in the Supernatural

- Make people believe prayer is boring, unnecessary, or ineffective.
- Promote a Christianity that is intellectual but powerless—where people study theology but never experience God's presence or miracles.
- Keep people focused on logic and reason alone, so they ignore spiritual warfare.

Why? Because prayer is the most powerful weapon against the enemy—if people stop praying, they stop walking in victory.

6. Divide and Isolate Christians

- Stir up offense, gossip, and division in churches so people lose faith in the church altogether.
- Make people think, “I can follow God on my own; I don't need church.”
- Create false teachers who preach a gospel of division, controversy, and hate instead of unity and love.
- Why? Because isolated Christians are weak, but united believers are a powerful army.

7. Delay Their Decision for Christ

- Whisper, “You have time. You can get serious about God later.”
- Make them believe small compromises don't matter.

their own, they won't feel the need for a Savior.

5. Destroy Prayer Lives and Faith in the Supernatural

- Make people believe prayer is boring, unnecessary, or ineffective.
- Promote a Christianity that is intellectual but powerless—where people study theology but never experience God's presence or miracles.
- Keep people focused on logic and reason alone, so they ignore spiritual warfare.

Why? Because prayer is the most powerful weapon against the enemy—if people stop praying, they stop walking in victory.

6. Divide and Isolate Christians

- Stir up offense, gossip, and division in churches so people lose faith in the church altogether.
- Make people think, “I can follow God on my own; I don't need church.”
- Create false teachers who preach a gospel of division, controversy, and hate instead of unity and love.
- Why? Because isolated Christians are weak, but united believers are a powerful army.

7. Delay Their Decision for Christ

- Whisper, “You have time. You can get serious about God later.”

Make them believe small compromises don't matter.